

A Christmas Gift

Send a friend or relative the Norway Advertiser for a Christmas present. You will find it a very acceptable gift. See ad on page seven of this issue.

BUSINESS SPECIALS

Under the best notices are inserted for two weeks at a time. Seven words to a line. Today everything in our store is priced much lower than it has been for years and our prices will be found as low as the so-called "bargain" stores. If this article is discontinued or out of the store, the price will be too much to pay. The goods are up to the minute. ## When is a "SALE" Not a Sale!

If we wanted to destroy the confidence and faith of our patrons, how easy it would be to replace the prices of a year or two ago and advertise, "Sensational Discounts," "One-Half off," etc., etc., and etc.!

It is true that today's values are much greater than for many years—that's not news. Long ago we revised prices of everything in our store. We took our losses wherever necessary so that today our regular prices compare favorably with so-called discount offerings.

And, equally as important, our stocks comprise only up-to-date stylish jewelry of highest quality. Thus you may be sure that the gift you buy will not betray you—as to style and quality.

Mrs. Sheeran Dead—Social and Box Supper Held—New Officers Elected.

Mrs. Amanda Sheeran passed away at her home, Wednesday afternoon, Dec. 9. Mrs. Sheeran had been in poor health for a long time, but the cause of her death came soon after a fall, which broke her leg. Mrs. Sheeran was about eighty-six years old. She was a native of Scotland and had lived in this town for many years and also had a few boarders for a little while last summer. She has been cared for by Mrs. Florence Perham, R. N., and Mrs. Josephine Thurlow and J. N. Farnham. Mrs. Sheeran was the daughter of Perrin and Pauline Felt Dudley and the widow of James Sheeran, who passed away many years ago. She never had any children, but J. N. Farnham has lived with many years and no son could have given her better care than he has done. She is survived by two sisters, Mrs. Angie Bowler of Bryant Pond and Mrs. Evelyn Young of Norway, and several nephews and nieces. She belonged to the Pythian Sisters and a Ladies Aid society. The funeral was held Friday afternoon at one o'clock at the house. Rev. C. D. McKenzie officiated. The floral tributes were beautiful. There were visitors from all over.

Benjamin R. Billings shot a deer. The stores are putting up their Christmas decorations.

The Christian Endeavor Society held a social at the Town Hall, Thursday evening. The candy and peanut table was presided over by Miss Jennie Norton and Edith Williams. The social was given by Misses Methyl Wing and Clara Whitman. The boxes for the supper were sold by guessing who the owner was as only feet were shown. Mrs. Gertrude Redman and Mrs. Edna Newton were the committee to set up the social. Games and guessing contests were played and over $5.00 was made.

The Christian Endeavor Society have elected the following officers for 1932:

AUNT BETSEY'S LETTER

Dear Corner Folks: Old Aunt Betsy seems to be backsliding lately. However, the Corner is being carried on splendidly, don't you think so? But pity me, trying to decide the best story. Sometimes later, I think I shall do something to these interesting stories and poems. They certainly are wonderful.

Well, Miss Curiosity, so you are a patron of the auction rooms too? You'd be surprised if you knew how near Aunt Betsy you have been. Mrs. Mace has been out ill, but is on deck once more. Thank you for the pretty piece of poetry. We, too, lost a young sister two years ago. Write again Miss C.

Ethel Louisa Kimball, thank you for your pretty verse. Send in your address and receive a membership card. You'd be surprised if you knew how near Aunt Betsy you have been. Mrs. Mace has been out ill, but is on deck once more. Thank you for the pretty piece of poetry. We, too, lost a young sister two years ago. Write again Miss C.

Grandma surely is busy, isn't she? Will be awfully glad to have a visit when she is at liberty. I am home nearly all the time as my work keeps me here, except for an occasional daily visit at the school. Each week from now on I am going to have one of the Old Mother Goose rhymes in the corner. They are always new to the little folks and mine never tire of learning them. I will not include the rhyme in my letter as you may like to cut and make a book of them.

If any of you have not received your membership cards let me know as I do not want to overlook any one.

Bye until next week. Sincerely, —Aunt Betsy.

REPAIR PHONOGRAPHS—Of all makes, repairing machines, a telephone call may help you when in trouble. Roy A. White, 37 Beal St., Norway, Tel. 129.

"I Had a Little Husband"

I had a little husband, no bigger than my thumb;
I put him in a pint-pot, and there I hid him drum.
I gave him some garters, to garter up his hose,
And a little pocket handkerchief to wipe his pretty nose.
I bought a little horse, that galloped up and down;
I saddled him and bridled him, and sent him out of town.

George A. Yates of Bryant Pond, Rt. 2, writes: "Dear Sirs: Enclosed find picture which I drew free hand of my favorite animal for the Children's Corner. I drew it all free with only my memory of a horse's looks for a guide."

The picture came to us in a large envelope and is a drawing of a nice looking saddle horse, all saddled and bridled, ready for the road. We have turned the picture over to "Aunt Betsy" for further comments. We do not have facilities for making a picture from it to print in the paper.

Grandma surely is busy, isn't she? Will be awfully glad to have a visit when she is at liberty. I am home nearly all the time as my work keeps me here, except for an occasional daily visit at the school. Each week from now on I am going to have one of the Old Mother Goose rhymes in the corner. Careless handling of kerosene and gasoline is one of the chief causes of farm fires. Kindling fires in stoves or furnaces with gasoline or kerosene is dangerous. Be careful in handling lamps, heaters, stoves, incubators, brooders, and lanterns or lamps with flammable liquids for fuel—never fill them while they are burning. Use a non-inflammable liquid such as carbon tetrachloride for dry cleaning. Keep kerosene and gasoline in tightly covered metal containers. Don't leave them near stoves, furnaces or rubbish.

MODERN WIFE HAS MORE VARIETY IN MENU THAN MOTHER

Old-Fashioned Holiday Meal Formulas Wear New Dresses in the 1931 Mode

Undoubtedly mother was a good cook, but no husband is going to have reason this Christmas, if the modern wife keeps her eyes open and her wits about. For the markets today offer greater variety than ever before and prices are low enough to come within the most modest budgets.

The modern homemaker may follow mother's old-fashioned formulas this holiday season, but she proceeds to dress them up in a way that adds many a new appetizing appeal.

Take the matter of introducing the turkey. Her fruit cocktail and that in strawberries, tasting as though they had just been picked. Vegetables offer an abundance of choice in the closing days of 1931—summering was beans, green beans, lima beans, green peas, spinach, baby mushrooms, fresh-flavored golden autumn corn. And the homemaker of today can buy any of these vegetables ready to cook without any of the preliminary bother of washing, scraping, or preparing them.

For the holiday dessert, instead of, or in addition to plum pudding, there are delicious sun-ripened strawberries already to be made into shortcakes, mousses or puddings. One of the best of these modern puddings is the White Mountain Fruit Mold given below. Pie cherries, testing as though they had dropped straight from the trees—and all pitted—blueberries, logan berries and blackberries are also available this year.

Fruit Cup
Remove skin and seeds from one-half pound white grapes. Pare and cut in sections two oranges. Add 1 cup of new fruit. Serve icy cold in cocktail glasses.

Spinach Ring with Mushrooms
1 box quick frozen spinach—cooked according to directions
1 box quick frozen mushrooms
1 teaspoon grated onion
1 tablespoon butter
2 cups cream sauce
1 cup milk
1 egg
1 teaspoon salt
1 teaspoon pepper
4 tablespoons butter
4 tablespoons flour

Chop spinach fine, add grated onion, which has been browned in butter. Season with salt, pepper and egg yolk beaten. Mix spinach with one-half the cream sauce and fold in egg whites which have been stiffly beaten. Place in buttered ring mold placed in a pan of hot water and bake in a moderate oven thirty minutes. Loosen the spinach from the sides of the mold with a knife, and turn out on a hot platter. Fill the center with mushrooms which have been sautéed in butter until soft and mixed with the rest of the cream sauce. Garnish with strips of pineapples and hard cooked egg. Serves six.

White Mountain Fruit Mold
1 cup sugar
1-1/2 cup water
1-1/2 teaspoon cream of tartar
1 egg white, beaten until stiff
Boil sugar, water and cream of tartar until it spins a long thread. Pour gradually on beaten egg white, beating constantly as in making frosting. Cool. Soak 1 tablespoon gelatine in 1-4 cup cold water. Dissolve over hot water or steam. Add to cool frosting mixture. Whip and add 1 cup heavy cream. Fold in 1 cup quick frozen raspberries. Mold, chill, garnish and fill center of ring with the fruit. Two boxes of berries are required for the recipe. Serves 8 to 10. Whipped cream may be placed on top of the berries in the center.

Old Doc Mitchell Queries

Few men whose names are recorded in history have excited my envy; they have had indications, troubles, burdens, which were in the end more weighty than their joys; but when I think of Adam I do have a feeling that borders on actual envy. And this is what started me.

Adam gave names to all cattle, and to the fowl of the air, and to every beast of the field. What a job that must have been!

Genesis does not state how long a time was consumed in this task, but it seems probable that Adam was not bothered by any thought of unemployment; that each night when he went to rest, he knew just what he would do on the day following. No bother about taxes, rent, food expenses; no shadow of a possible discharge on account of age or lack of business.

According to a late Encyclopedia, there are now on the earth about half a million different kinds of animal life; that is, mammals, birds, reptiles, amphibians, fishes, mollusks and insects. It is not probable that there are now as many of these as when the world was new. So, to be conservative, it must have kept Adam busy over a period of years to name all these.

If he averaged one a minute, which would keep an active and alert man fairly busy, and worked eight hours a day and six days each week (it is not likely that Adam worked on the Sabbath, for that was against the rule) it would have required at least ten years to complete the animal directory. And so, in this time of little business and unemployment, I envy Adam's good fortune.

But there is always a drawback. What kept Adam happy and content prior to the arrival of Eve. Who darned his socks and performed the other little acts of comfort and consolation before the surgical operation was thought of. There's the rub. Perhaps I wouldn't have liked the job at that.

OXFORD

Rev. Hugh Gillis of the Federated church preached a very impressive sermon, Sunday evening, Dec. 13, taking for his text, Revelation 21, 21st verse, "And the twelve gates were twelve pearls, every several gate was of one pearl." Arthur Records, Samuel Ring, Arthur Walker, Harold Pratt, Fred Farrington, Geo. Fletcher, Fred Hayes and Frank Grover are among those who shot a deer here the past week.

The M. E. Ladies' Aid met Wednesday afternoon at the Chapel.

Caribel Smith from Lewiston is home for a few weeks.

The W. R. C. had a Christmas tree, Wednesday evening at their regular meeting. A good time was enjoyed and everyone well remembered with gifts. The committee in charge was Emma Holden, Elta Curtis, Agnes Culbert and Methyl Hamlin.

Mr. and Mrs. Philip Larou and children from Portland were Sunday guests of their parents, Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Trebilcock.

What a Bladder Physic
Should do. Work on the bladder as castor oil on the bowels. Drive out impurities and excess acids that cause irritation which results in getting up nights, frequent desire, burning, leg pains or backache. BUCKETS (5 gr. tablets) is a pleasant bladder physic. Get a 25c test box from your druggist. After four days if not relieved go back and get your money. You will feel good after this cleansing and you get your regular sleep. Lester V. Ashton, Druggist.
